Bethel Fair to Surpass Previous Shows in Races, Exhibits

Every Department Promises Fine Showings—Many Entries in Races, Cattle and Agricultural Exhibits

The third annual Bethel Agricultural Fair will be held at Riverside Park, Bethel, on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 14 and 15. With good weather on these days, a crowd will be present that will compare favorably with the throngs that gathered on the old fair grounds to view the Bethel Fair of thirty years ago.

The race track will be in prime condition and the entries have reached a high mark. The hall exhibition will include several 4-H Club exhibits, besides many individual contributions. The poultry and cattle departments also promise to be the largest since the fair was revived three years ago, while numerous commercial displays are already booked.

County Teachers' Convention

Meeting at Rumford, Last Monday

The annual meeting of the Oxford County Teachers' Association was held Monday at Stephens High School, with more than 300 teachers present. Among the able speakers were Dr. Anna Cordts of State Teachers' College, Iowa; Dr. Payson Smith, Massachusetts commissioner of education; John E. Hart of the Maine Commissioner of Education of Maine, and Miss Florence Jenkins, State Supervisor of Home Economics.

The forenoon session opened in the auditorium of the high school building at 9:30 a. m., prayer being offered by Rev. John E. Hart of the Methodist Episcopal Church, after which the Stephens high school orchestra, under the direction of Harry J. Cohen, furnished music and delighted and surprised the audience by an excellent performance.

The meeting of the school board members and superintendents of schools was held in Room 113 and the chairman was Superintendent L. E. Williams of Rumford. He presided at the meeting.

GORHAM NORMAL SCHOOL NEWS

By Doris P. Marr

On Friday evening last, the junior class with the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. as hosts, were guests of honor at the annual reception, which was held in Russell Hall. The background of autumn leaves and the colorfulness of the evening dresses made a very effective setting. Music for dancing was provided by the Fella orchestra, under the direction of one of the students. No formal receiving line was in order, but the guests were warmly welcomed by the members of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. cabinets. Miss Rita Linnell, Oxford, serving as one of the ushers.

At a meeting of the dramatic club held during the past week, the Misses Eva Hall, Bridgton, and Beatrice Farwell, New Gloucester, were among those to be received into the club membership. Following the try-outs plans were made for a banquet to be held next week.

Miss Kathryn Groezinger, Norway, has joined the County Club.

Miss Betty Hutton of Rumford is serving as a hostess at one of the tables in East Hall during the week.
